

Sabah Theological Seminary
English Medium Courses from Jun-Nov 2009
Counseling/Social Concern Courses

Course Title/Date/Time	Course Description & Lecturer	Fees
Premarital and Marriage Therapy (3 credit Hrs) June 22-26 Mon-Fri 9.00-12.30 pm 2.00-5.00 pm	Classroom activity majors on the development of effective counseling skills in premarital counseling theory and methods with special attention to the oriental culture and Christian foundation. (with Mandarin translation) Lecturer: Professor Susanna C.P. Wong Professor, Dept. of Pastoral Counseling and Director of Bethel Pastoral Counseling Centre, M.T.A. Counseling & Guidance (Oklahoma City University), Satir therapist, supervisor Clinical member of Satir Institute of the Pacific.	Credit: RM310.00 Audit: RM235.00
Theory & Practice of Counseling (3 Credit Hrs) July 2-8 Thu–following Wed 9.00-12.30pm, 2.00-5.00 pm	A study of major schools of counseling theories and practices, with emphasis on practices and supervision. Lecturer: Dr. Meipo Young Professor, Dept. of Pastoral Counseling, Bethel Bible Seminary. Ph. D. (Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary)	Credit: RM310.00 Audit: RM235.00
Psychology (3 Credit Hrs) July 17-Oct 30 Fri 8.35-9.25am, 10.30-12.15pm	The course is designed to provide the basic concepts of Psychology, the Human Development will be emphasized. Lecturer: Dr. William Liew	Credit: RM310.00 Audit: RM235.00
Personal Growth (3 Credit Hrs) July 14-Nov 3 Tue 7.00-9.45 pm	The course is to facilitate participants to integrate humanistic approach & spirituality into the search of the SELF. Course content includes the exploration of each individual's "SELF" & personal reflections on the developmental backgrounds, spirituality & personalities (using the Myers-Briggs Type Indicator). Lecturer: Dr. William Liew	Credit: RM310.00 Audit: RM235.00
Welfare Services to Women and Children/ Alcohol Misuse (2 Credit Hrs) Oct 2-4; Oct 16-18 Fri 7.00-10.00 pm Sat 8.30-12.30pm 2.00-5.00pm 7.00-10.00 pm Sun 2.00-4.00 pm	This course discusses: 1) Safe guards for women's equality and their rights: the safety of female workers, occupational welfare, equal pay for equal work, employment services, protection of women's and children health. 2) Welfare and relief measures aimed at women and children. 3) Church and welfare services to women and children. 4) Alcohol misuse - The problem and remedial social intervention. Lecturers: Dr. Helen Lasimbang : Pediatrician (SMC) Dr. Kumar: Psychologist (Hosp Mesra) Dr. Wendy : Lecturer (UMS) Mrs. Jochebed Shaun : Psychologist (Care Worker)	Credit: RM210.00 Audit: RM160.00

Evening/Day Courses

Course Title/Date/Time	Course Description & Lecturer	Fees
Biblical Hebrew Language II (3 Credit Hrs) June 23-Oct 13 Tue 7.00-9.45pm	Prerequisite: Hebrew Language I. Lecturer: Dr. Daniel Gloor	Credit: RM310.00 Audit: RM235.00
History of Christianity (1500 AD onward) (3 Credit Hrs) June 29-July 31 Mon/Tue/Fri 7.00-9.45pm	Lecturer: Dr. Scott Sunquist Associate Professor of World Christianity of Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, USA. Editor of A Dictionary of Asian Christianity (Eerdmans 2001) and co-author of A History of the World Christian Movement, Volume I (Orbis Books 2001). Former Lecturer at Trinity Theological College.	Credit: RM310.00 Audit: RM235.00
Mission and Evangelism (3 Credit Hrs) Jun 30-Aug 14 Tue/Wed/Fri 10.30-12.15pm Thu 7.40-9.25 am	Lecturer: Dr. Scott Sunquist	Credit: RM310.00 Audit: RM235.00
Christian Ethics I (3 Credit Hrs) Jun 24-Oct 14 Wed 7.00-9.45pm	This course is an effort to appreciate the development and unique concerns that characterized Christian ethics which combines the development of ethical thinking from New Testament to the present, examines various Christian ethical theories; starts with ethical issues important to Christians—such as poverty, war, and abortion—and examine the way various Christians have dealt with them. Lecturer: Dr. Wilfred John	Credit: RM310.00 Audit: RM235.00
Church and Society (2 Credit Hrs) Aug 12-Oct 23 Wed 7.40-8.30am Fri 10.30-12.15pm	This course explores the relationship between the church and the society; discusses the mission and ministry of the congregation; analyzes the various church contexts and relevant social constructions; helps students to investigate how church life and ministry interact with sociopolitical and cultural structures and how these processes impact people's everyday lives. Lecturer: Dr. Wilfred John	Credit: RM210.00 Audit: RM160.00
One of the World Religions (3 Credit Hrs) Jun 22-Oct 19 (No classes from Sept 1-30) Mon/Tue 7.40-9.25am	Lecturer: Dr. Olaf Schumann	Credit: RM310.00 Audit: RM235.00

For details, please contact Dr Chung Song Mee (Dean of Studies) or Ps Wong Yu Ming (Registrar) at office hours (088-231579) or email: chungsm@stssabah.org, admission@stssabah.org. Time table of the various classes and registration form are available on website: www.stssabah.org.

Closing date of Registration: One week before classes begin. Please register early to ensure that enough course materials can be prepared for all. Fees are payable at the time of registration.

Thank you for your support. May God bless you abundantly!

Dr Chung Song Mee (Dean of Studies)
 22 May 2009